

Did you miss a Sunday service?

There are 3 ways to hear all or some of the service: (i) CDs, (ii) a downloadable version without any singing, or (iii) the whole service on tape.

The CDs and tapes are available in the foyer. The download (which is also available as podcast and RSS feed) is at www.nhec.org.uk.

All 3 versions are usually ready by Wednesday. For further directions about how to download, please go to www.nhec.org.uk/downloads and scroll down a bit.

Our web diary now covers the whole of August, which you can access through the front page of our web site, or more directly on

www.nhec.org.uk/church\_life/web\_diary.html

At the same time, printed copies of the diary are available in the foyer (both in A4 and A3 size).

Biblefresh, a movement of churches, agencies, colleges and festivals seeking to encourage and inspire churches across the UK to a greater confidence and appetite for the Word of God, has recently re-launched its website, offering now a richer and interactive content.

Please have a go at www.biblefresh.com

Also, a (subtle) case of discrimination against a recently converted Christian has been aired in the Telegraph. See the full report on <http://www.telegraph.co.uk/news/newsttopics/religion/7914408/Oxford-University-lecturer-discriminated-against-after-converting-to-Christianity.html>
